

Acts 2:1-13 Pentecost Sunday (Church's Birthday on Earth)

New Revised Standard Version Updated Edition

1) English by Eulynis Matthiasfridie (Acts 2:1-2)

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting.

2) Korean by Kevin Winebold (Acts 2:3-4)

Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

3) Hindi by Shirley George (Acts 2:5-6)

Now there were devout Jews from every people under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each.

4) Japanese by Bennett Murray (Acts 2:7-8)

Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language?"

5) Chinese by Jun Peng (Acts 2:9-10)

Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes,

6) Spanish by Paula Pyun (Acts 2:11-13)

Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

This is the Word of God for the people of God. Thanks be to God. Amen
